

ReadArc PDF fixture contains stable selectable text for parser regression tests.

This first page has enough readable words to pass the semantic text extraction threshold.

Second PDF page is the locator restoration target for the reader platform.
Page ordering must remain stable even when a saved locator is reopened.